

Dear Prospective Student:

Thank you for your interest in the professions of court reporting and captioning. Stenographic reporting offers amazing careers that are flexible, financially beneficial, without the overwhelming debt of a four-year degree.

The Oregon Court Reporters Association supports the efforts of Project Steno, a nonprofit organization promoting awareness of stenographic careers who may be offering tuition assistance. Taking steps to secure a bright future begins by clicking on this link <https://projectsteno.org/> and going to the “Getting Started” section. You can sign up for a free six-week introductory program about stenographic reporting – all from the comfort of your own home!

If you have any questions about the stenographic profession in general or run into any stumbling blocks, please feel free to reach out to us. Please find the person closest to your geographical location.

Southwest Washington – Jan Schmitt, 360-695-5554, jan@schmittreporting.com

Portland – Shellene Iverson, 503-274-4644, iversonassociates@iareporting.com

Wilsonville – Robin Reger, 503-502-5504, regerreporting@gmail.com

Eugene – CC Reporting, (541) 485-0111, depositions@ccreporting.com

Roseburg – LeAnne Law, (541) 643-3840, depos@lawcourtreporting.com

Central Oregon – Alane Harrold, (541) 771-8251, bendcourtreporter@gmail.com

We are looking forward to having you in our fold. Happy stenoing!

Still not sure? Follow these links below for some videos about court reporting and captioning:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=SITV-2Ja5ZQ>

<https://www.dropbox.com/s/ftdu3xg0723pbng/True%20Final.mp4?dl=0>

